Overview of the Thai Stock Market April 1, 2020 - September 30, 2020

April 2020 to September 2020: The SET recovered in April 2020 after plummeting in February 2020 and March 2020 in reaction to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, the situation in the country improved rapidly. Daily new cases approached single digits, thanks to the government's quick reaction. The government and the Bank of Thailand launched measures to aid businesses and individuals damaged by COVID-19, easing investor worries and they returned to accumulate stocks, pushing the SET up to 1,300 from the year's low at around 1,000 in March 2020. Inflows also came from a measure approved by the cabinet that involved capital market support via allowing investors to receive tax privileges if they invested in SSFX, which invested 65% of all new assets in SET-listed securities. The SET improved further in May 2020 after the cabinet began lifting restrictions, beginning with phase one and then moving to phase two after daily new cases reached zero. Then in June 2020, easing progressed to phase III and IV and finally phase V in July 2020. However, market momentum subsided in June 2020 on worries about the surge in COVID-19 infections overseas. The Fed, IMF, World Bank and Bank of Thailand cut economic estimates again as damage from COVID-19 pandemic appeared to be more drastic and longer-lived than had been expected. However, better economic data reported in June 2020 and QE programs by key central banks (FOMC, ECB and BOJ) propped up the market. In July 2020, the SET was suppressed by the bank sector as it reported large misses in 2Q20 earnings from higher provisions and lower fee income but good news about progress in COVID-19 vaccine development boosted market sentiment, allowing the SET to zigzag down. Zigzag-down pattern was firmed in August 2020 as the SET made a lower high and a lower low. SET earnings for 2Q20 totaled Bt31bn, down a sharp 47.2%YoY. ENER was the sector seeing the most YoY drop in net profit as fuel demand decreased and companies had to book inventory losses. In September 2020, politics entered a period of turmoil and concerns over a second wave of COVID-19 in Thailand weighed on the market. The Finance Minister resigned after only 26 days in the position and political protests took place mid-month. The outbreak of COVID-19 in neighboring Myanmar intensified and illegal immigration raised concerns over transmission into Thailand. The SET closed September at 1,237.04.

SET return between April 2020 to September 2020 was +9.98%. The largest positive returns were in ETRON at +214.15%, AGRI at +83.76% and MEDIA at +27.15%. The largest negative returns were in BANK -8.06% and ICT -7.34%. Foreign investors were net sellers of 162 billion baht.
