Market Summary

Central banks of major economies continued to raise interest rates in the first half of 2023 to control inflation towards target. The global economy slowed down, especially in the manufacturing sector, while the service sector continued to grow. Later, inflation began to turn into a downward trend due to a more balanced supply and demand in both the energy and labor markets. As a result, central banks stopped raising interest rates. In addition, weak job data and continued lower inflation rate in the last quarter caused consensus to expect multiple rate cuts in 2024 which led to market rally. The effect of the high level of interest rates on economic growth was a major concern of investors. However, at the FOMC meeting in November, Fed chairman's speech was interpreted by investors as a sign of a policy pivot, the risk of an additional hike has diminished significantly which led to a falling bond yield and equity market relief. In 2024, global equity continued rallied led by developed markets on hope of aggressive rate cuts and better than expected global economy, these also reduced recession risk in 2024.
